Biscuit queen Grace Krilanovich hosted her friends to a biscuit and gravy dinner at Tiny's.

Married again: Marion and William Webster celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary by reaffirming their vows.

Celebrating the Symphony's new season were Eddie Scher and Linda and John Burroughs.

homeowners, they get upwards of 300 kids. Rick has to buy 60 pounds of candy just to get through the night.

The Gonzales House, by the way, is located at 834 Monterrey Ave. in Capitola. The O'Nion house is located just around the corner at 921 Columbus St.

A SAVIOR ON FOUR WHEELS:

Years ago, Sister Mary Socorro, OSF, inherited a beat-up old Toyota owned by the late Father Brice. It was a temperamental car that ended up in the shop as often as it ended up at Sister's destination, but it was all she had to make her daily rounds visiting people in local nursing homes.

"When I didn't appear some Mondays at Brommer Manor, I would call and say 'oh, I can't come in today, the car is in the hospital,'" said Sister Mary Socorro.

And "her ladies" as she calls them, would miss her.

She prayed the Lord would help her with her problem.

He did: in the form of Charles and Mary Pearl Puhl, who own Brommer Manor.

You see, the couple saw how devoted Sister was to "her ladies" and so one day recently they drove up to the retreat house where Sister lives and delivered their solution.

A blue 1981 Mercedes Benz — their own car.

They even put on new tires and gave it a new battery.

"I could not believe it," said Sister. "I always had hope with the Lord, though."

And now, Sister can faithfully make her rounds each day, visiting people in rest homes from Santa Cruz to Scotts Valley. ...

THE NEXT RAGE — BISCUITS AND GRAVY PARTIES:

They came dressed for the opera, clutching gilded handbags and $1.95 — the exact price for a meal of biscuits and gravy at Tiny's in Capitola.

The occasion was a birthday party thrown by 16-year-old Grace Krilanovich of Capitola, who gathered 16 of her friends for the biscuit evening. "Biscuits 'n' Gravy! Like William Powell and Myrna Loy — a formidable combo with the integrity to defy virtue while simultaneously personifying it," said Grace, explaining the party's concept.

The guests began to arrive at 6 p.m.: Leslie Piava in a floor-length chiffon gown with sequined bodice she "borrowed" from Soquel High, Sara Kishlansky in a smart shirtwaist dress in navy blue, and Katie Simpson, who nearly blinded the hostess with her silver sandals straight out of Andy Warhol's underground film "Trash," reported Grace.

Carina Zercher arrived in a mass of tulle dubbed the "princess dress," later changed to the "gravy dress" when a glob of country gravy landed amid the layers and could not be coached back out.

Seated at a table set with a complete assortment of ketchup, jams, jellies, mustard, salt and pepper, were Nicola Pepera and Reann Theis, who were among those ordering the requisite biscuits, although a few forget to order the country gravy that went with it.

"Next time I come here I'm going to order biscuits — those are soooo good," said Sarah Bolton as she dipped a biscuit in jelly.

And as the night wore on, gifts were opened, including a pair of plastic flamingos, four rolls of biscuits and a glow-in-the-dark Virgin Mary.

Grace said the party was phenomenal and thanked their waitress Lisa "who was way too patient and jovial for being stuck with 11 orders of biscuits." ...

WEDDING BELLS:

Word has just arrived that Donna Blakemore, a fifth-generation Santa Cruzan, and Erik Sueberkrop, a native of Hamburg, Germany, were married Aug. 18 in a private ceremony at the Swedenborgian Church in San Francisco.

Lishelle Blakemore, daughter of the bride, served as their attendant.

Donna is the daughter of Evelyn and Martin Blakemore of Santa Cruz and Erik is the son of Johanna Sueberkrop of Indianapolis, Ind.

Donna, by the way, is director of Major Campaigns and the Office of Development at UC Davis. She is a Santa Cruz High and UC Santa Cruz graduate.

Erik is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, Ohio, and taught at Ball State University. He is founding principal of STUDIOS Architecture with offices in San Francisco, Washington D.C., London and Paris.

He also is a fellow of the American Institute of Architects.

They will live in San Francisco and Davis. ...

AND MORE WEDDING BELLS:

A potluck picnic at DeLaveaga Park was the occasion recently for a celebration marking the recent wedding of Soquel attorney Jeff Bosshard and Watsonville group home supervisor Jennifer Carrera.

Among the more than 100 picnic celebrants was the groom's stepmother, Wanda Bosshard of Sacramento, and his law office associates Joe and Britt Haselton. Also there were the bride's sisters, Fran Rosier, Cippie Arellano and Mary Stevens; Santa Cruz Attorney Timothy Morgan and his wife, Judy Morgan; and former Scotts Valley City Councilman Ed Lang and his wife, Madzy Lang.

The couple was married in September at Shadowbrook restaurant in Capitola in a private ceremony by retired Superior Court Judge Richard Kessell. ...

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY:

Do you know anyone who can juggle strawberries and golf balls at the same time?

The answer is Linda Burroughs, Santa Cruz County Symphony gala chairwoman.

You see, Linda provided champagne, strawberries and dessert for more than 1,000 delighted guests after the opening of the concert season recently.

Elegant assistance was provided by Eddie Scher, manager of the Civic Auditorium, and her husband, John Burroughs. (John and Linda's first date, by the way, was the Symphony.)

Then, 36 hours after the party, the inexhaustible Linda was in sport clothes with Harvey Nickelson of Coast Commercial Bank overseeing the Symphony's annual golf tournament at Pasatiempo. ...

NOW THAT'S A CLASSY CLASS:

It was 40 years ago that the Santa Cruz High School class of 1953 graduated from high school.

But they still remember those good times together and recently 43 of them gathered for a reunion luncheon at the Elks Lodge.

Phyllis Mitchell Sayles and her husband, G.S. "Chic" Sayles, came all the way from Miami, Fla., for the lunch. She won the prize for the longest distance traveled to the reunion.

And seated at the same table were her two longtime friends Lillian Ross Eckerond of Fresno and Iona Jensen Kennedy of Eureka. In high school they were always together and were known as "the Three Musketeers."

Also coming from out of state were Bill Hunt and his wife, Ruth Hunt, from Tucson, Ariz.

Ed Vandiver won a door prize and Lillian Akashich Wood was the prize for the most great-grandchildren. She has five. All the prizes were ceramic tiles with a picture of Santa Cruz High on them.

And Alvin Gregory, crew member of the Jeremiah O'Brien, the last Liberty Ship, told of his experiences in Rouen, France, and sailing down the Seine River to LeHavre with the U.S. Armada de la Liberte — a 60-mile parade that included 26 talls ships and 21 warships.

Chairman of the event was Alvin, Robert Bales of Concord was the emcee and other helpers were Evelyn Godfrey Blakemore, Isobel Hart Webber, Mary Peppas and Maie Goodman Cullom. ...

SHOP TILL THEY DROP:

Twenty-six shopping sprees were handed out during the Rancho del Mar Country Days of Aptos event and the two grand prize winners were G. Beale of La Selva Beach and Lyn Gilek of Aptos.

Each received a $150 Rancho Del Mar Center gift certificate. ...

PURPLE PETALS:

Bouquets of purple flowers decorated the new offices of Women's Crisis Support during the program's open house. Purple is the color of domestic violence awareness and all guests received a purple ribbon to wear.

Among those attending the open house were U.S. Congressman Sam Farr's representative Naomi Brauner, Assemblyman Bruce McPherson, Santa Cruz Supervisor Mardi Wormhoudt, Santa Cruz Mayor Kathryn Beiers, Watsonville Mayor Tony Campos, Scotts Valley Councilwoman Peggie Lopez, Santa Cruz Police Chief Steve Belcher and Sheriff Mark Tracy.

Local businesses donated hors d'oeuvres and drinks while musicians provided free tunes for the event for visitors like prosecutor and executive officer of the county Domestic Violence Commission Christine McGuire, chairwoman of the Domestic Violence Commission Pat Ellerby, District Attorney Art Danner, Shane Snowdon of the UC Santa Cruz Women's Center, Carol Girvetz of the County's Administrative Office, Terry Pable from the Probation Department and Melyssa Joe Kelly, who coordinates the Commission for the Prevention of Violence Against Women.

And the board of Women's Crisis Support was well represented by Meredeth Clark of the California Association of Nonprofits; Anita Diaz, director of the UCSC Student Health Center; Barbara Hill and Barbara Shingai, vice presidents from Dominican and Watsonville hospitals respectively; A.J. Alaniz of Victims Services; John Christensen of the Skills Center; nurse Charlotte Edwards; attorney Eleanor Eisenberg, Nancy Carr Gordon of Emergency Services; and Patty Sapone, a lieutenant with the Santa Cruz Police Department. ...

MARRIED THREE TIMES — TO THE SAME PERSON.

That would be Marion and William Webster, who reaffirmed their wedding vows on the S.S. Independence on the occasion of their 59th wedding anniversary.

The couple were married at the Carmel Mission in 1936, then had their wedding vows reaffirmed aboard the S.S. Liberte in Tahiti for their 30th wedding.

They did it again recently on shipboard in Hawaii, accompanied by their son William Webster Jr., and his wife of 19 years, Barbara Webster. ...
